

Executive Roundtable 2009

What is the Executive Roundtable program?

It is a scheduled set of opportunities for business leaders to meet, discuss ideas, share suggestions and grow professionally. They are invaluable forums to learn from the experience of others and share your own business lessons.

Good Candidates for Participation

- CEOs, Owners and Presidents of any size business
- Managers and decision-makers in any size business

Why Participate the Executive Roundtable program?

The roundtables provide a confidential "board of advisors" to support owners and managers of small, mid-size and large businesses with the challenges, problems and opportunities encountered in leading and managing.

Testimonials

The consultation, relationships, exposure, and new business that have resulted from these sessions have been invaluable. Without hesitation, I would recommend this program to any businessperson wanting to get more involved in Durham's business community while gaining ever-important feedback, input and experience.

- Michael Baucom, Proforma Print Source

"It doesn't matter whether or not your business is new or established, there's just so much to learn from other business owners and managers who are going through the same things."

- Pam G. Higdon, Co-Owner, Express Employment Professionals

"It's the best deal in town."

- Bill Lindenmuth, President, Triangle Financial Services
