Questions – please attach your answers on a separate sheet (max three pages).
You may attach up to two supporting documents (i.e. newsletter, brochure, annual report).

1. What is your organization's mission statement?
2. Project title and description. Please clearly state the goals of this project and what specifically you hope the group to accomplish (i.e. report, event, etc.)
3. What impact will this project have on Durham?
4. Why would the Leadership Durham program be the most effective/most appropriate group to carry out this project?
5. What resources are currently in place for this project? What additional resources will be needed?
6. In what ways, if any, are you currently attempting to address the needs of this project?
7. What is the duration of this project? (Please clearly state the start and end dates. If it is an ongoing project for your organization, indicate at what point participants can begin and end their involvement. As a reminder, projects may begin as early as February 2010 and the class will graduate on May 27, 2010).
8. Number of class members needed to undertake project.
