- ✚ What are the critical workforce issues facing Durham?
- ✚ How will workforce and business development issues affect me, my business, my customers and my employees?
- ✚ Economic development in Durham and our workforce – what is the connection?

Start the New Year, 2005, with a lively morning discussion about such topics as worker recruitment, skills training, industry specific needs, expanding and critical job sectors and the latest in regulatory and legislative developments.

The Durham Workforce Development Board, The NC JobLink Career Center and The Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce invite you to join our City Council and Board of County Commissioners to get the latest insight into workforce development trends. Time will be permitted for questions and answers.

PLEASE RSVP by Tuesday, February 1, 05 -- as seating is limited! Contact the Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce, phone: 682-2133 or email: Kathy Elliott kathy.elliott@ncmail.net or Kathy Hoffmeier khoffmeier@durhamchamber.org
